

Gerard Livett has been riding motorcycles since 1995, and has been a MAG member since 1996.

In that time he has held a number of positions within MAG (UK). He has been the Greater London Regional Representative and a member of the National Committee of MAG(UK) since October 2003 and a member of the Board of Directors since April 2004.

He has been a FEMA observer/delegate since August 2007. In 2008 he was co-opted onto the environment working group.

Within MAG UK, Gerard has focussed on planning and transport planning issues and is responsible for producing our responses to local transport plans.

In January 2007, Gerard presented a paper on Motorcycles as a Transport Alternative at the annual meeting of the Transportation Research Board in Washington DC. He has also attended the Lillehammer workshop on motorcycle safety and is preparing a paper for the INRETS conference to be held in Marseilles in March.

Gerard has degrees in Sociology and Law as well as an MPhil in town planning. He works as a town planner for the London Borough of Harrow and is a member of the Royal Town Planning Institute.

Gerard has had experience of running his own business, and is also familiar with all the financial and personnel responsibilities associated with managing a company, both in his own right and as a Director of MAG (UK) Ltd.

Gerard currently rides a Yamaha Diversion 900 and a Yamaha Fazer 600. He is married, and lives in London with his wife and two cats.
